If you are not satisfied with your utility company’s response to an inquiry or complaint, contact ORS Consumer Services.

ORS Consumer Services helps consumers resolve issues with regulated utilities in South Carolina.

Get Information on

Your Rights as a Consumer of Utility Services
Resolving Billing Issues with Your Utility
Programs or Benefits Offered by Your Utility
The Regulatory Process and How You May Participate

Regulated Utilities & Companies

Privately Owned Utilities:
- Electric
- Natural Gas
- Sewer
- Water

Household Goods Moving Companies
Passenger Carrier Companies
Telephone Companies
Electric Cooperatives
- Customers of an electric cooperative may complain to the ORS if electric service at their home is disconnected for not paying their electric bill and if they believe their electric cooperative did not follow the proper disconnection procedures as outlined by law.
Your Rights as a Utility Consumer

1. You have the right to establish utility service if you provide identification, a deposit (if needed), and access to your property.

2. You have the right to a written notice before your service is turned off (disconnected).

3. You have the right to set up a payment plan before your service is disconnected.

4. You have the right to have your meter tested for accuracy.

5. You have the right to have your utility explain the method of reading your meter.

6. You have the right to an explanation of your bill.

7. You have the right to have your complaints investigated promptly and thoroughly by your utility.

8. You have the right to have your bill adjusted, within the rules and regulations of the Public Service Commission of South Carolina, if an error has been found.

9. You have the right to contact your utility 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in case of emergency or unscheduled service outages.

10. You have the right to file a complaint with the Public Service Commission of South Carolina.