Executive Summary

S.C. Code Ann. § 58-9-280 (E)(11)(b) requires the Office of Regulatory Staff (ORS) to provide a report to the State Regulation of Public Utilities Review Committee (PURC) every four years as to the status of the South Carolina Universal Service Fund (SCUSF), provide recommendations, and provide such other information as the PURC deems appropriate.

The ORS examined information provided by telecommunications companies that participate in the SCUSF to analyze and review each company’s use of the funds. This report provides insight on the current state of the SCUSF, the ORS administration of the fund, disbursement to the telecommunications companies, responses from the telecommunications companies to ORS questions, and the ORS analysis and recommendation. To conduct the ORS examination, the agency sent each Carrier of Last Resort (COLR) an information request to aid in determining how each company used capital expenditures to enhance and improve South Carolina telecommunications networks. Based on a review of documents and responses provided by the companies, the ORS determined the telecommunications companies used SCUSF funds as intended.

The ORS makes the following recommendations:

1. An analysis of all revenues and expenses for each COLR should be conducted to determine a) whether the current funding level of the SCUSF is sufficient and b) whether distribution levels to COLRs are appropriate.
2. The PSC should have the authority to suspend or reduce the level of SCUSF support if a COLR fails to meet its obligations to provide basic voice communication services, including 911 service.

Applicable Laws and Guidelines

Under federal law, universal service is the principle that all Americans should have access to communications services. Eligible telecommunications carriers, as designated under section 214(e), shall be eligible to receive federal universal service support to provide these services. As described below by the Universal Service Administrative Company on its website:
Universal service is based on the principle that all Americans should have access to a baseline level of telecommunications service and further the public interest of keeping all Americans connected. This principle is the cornerstone of the Communications Act of 1934, which established universal service in legislation and also created the FCC. Since that time, universal service policies have helped make telephone service widely available throughout the U.S., even in rural areas.¹

Today, federal universal service not only supports voice services but also supports broadband services.

Under state law, a COLR is defined as a facility-based local exchange carrier, as determined by the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (PSC or the Commission). Consistent with the federal Telecommunications Act of 1996, a COLR has the obligation to provide basic local exchange telephone service, upon reasonable request, to all residential and single-line business customers within a defined service or geographic area. A COLR may meet its obligation by using any available technology of equal or greater service quality than is required by applicable Commission regulations as of the effective date of this item including, but not limited to, the provision of a broadband connection that allows the customer to access basic voice grade local service from the COLR or other available voice provider of the customer’s choice. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and regardless of the technology used, the basic voice grade local service provided to meet this obligation is subject to the PSC’s jurisdiction with respect to service quality and rates and is entitled to SCUSF support as set forth in Section 58-9-280 (E) (4) and is capped, except for the costs of the Lifeline program and the cost of administration of the program.

South Carolina law requires periodic status reports on the SCUSF to be submitted to the PURC. This report is submitted pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-9-280 (E)(11)(b) which provides as follows:

“...[t]o create an environment that ensures financial stability necessary to encourage long-term investment by carriers of last resort while providing for appropriate oversight:

(a) within two years after the effective date of this subitem, the Office of Regulatory Staff shall provide a report to the Public Utilities Review Committee (PURC) as to the State Universal Service Fund, the need for funding, and the appropriate level of distributions; and

(b) every four years thereafter, the Office of Regulatory Staff shall provide a report to PURC as to the status of the State Universal Service Fund, provide recommendations, and provide such other information as the PURC deems appropriate.

The initial report included significant historical and operational information and was submitted on May 25, 2018, https://ors.sc.gov/sites/ors/files/Documents/Consumers/Telecommunications/5-23-18%20USF%20PURC%20report.pdf

This second report addresses the status of the SCUSF and provides recommendations.

The PSC defined universal service as “the provision of basic local exchange telecommunications service, at affordable rates and upon reasonable request, to all single-party residential and all single-line business customers within a designated service area.” Along with the commitment to provide universal service, the

3 Docket No. 97-239-C, Order No. 2001-996
Commission also established support for low-income consumers through the Lifeline program.

The COLRs reported an aggregate number of local landlines as 465,00 as found in The Status of Local Competition in South Carolina 2021 Annual Report (Local Competition Report) (https://ors.sc.gov/sites/ors/files/Documents/Regulatory/Telecommunication/reportsAndNotices/2021%20Local%20Competition%20Report%20YE%202020_LM.pdf). The total number of state-supported Lifeline accounts for 2021 was 2,930.

For a Local Exchange Carrier (LEC) to receive support from the SCUSF, the PSC requires a LEC to become a COLR and meet the following guidelines:

- The COLR must be willing and able and must certify its commitment to provide the defined services supported by the SCUSF to any requesting customer’s location within the designated service area;

- The COLR must advertise the availability of such services and service prices using media of general distribution;

- The COLR must provide its services at not more than the PSC-authorized maximum stand-alone rates for the defined basic local exchange telecommunications service and must meet all service-quality and provision rules established by the PSC for Universal Services; and

- The COLR may satisfy its obligation to provide the defined services over its own facilities or a combination of its own facilities and resale of another carrier’s services. The COLR may also satisfy its obligation to provide the defined services, in whole or in part, through the lease of unbundled network elements. A carrier that provides service solely through the resale of other carriers’ facilities is not entitled to Universal Service support.
Administration of the South Carolina Universal Service Fund

The SCUSF was established to be a revenue-neutral mechanism. To offset the amount received from the SCUSF, the COLRs that withdrew monies from the SCUSF were required to reduce prices for intrastate services that contained implicit subsidies for universal service. Today, there are twenty-four (24) COLRs. The level of support is capped at the level of the SCUSF for 2015 - $40,732,660. The SCUSF reimburses COLRs providing qualifying low-income residential consumers a monthly credit of $3.50/month. Additionally, the administrative expenses for the ORS and annual independent audit of the SCUSF operations is funded by the SCUSF. The SCUSF funds the expenses associated with the required billing and collection of the SCUSF by the South Carolina Department of Revenue (DOR).

Consistent with laws and Commission guidelines, the ORS determines a contribution factor on an annual basis for the SCUSF. Historically, the factor has increased on an annual basis. The SCUSF is allocated to contributors based on revenues derived and submitted. In Order No. 2001-996, dated October 10, 2001, the Commission ordered that all telecommunications carriers and other providers offering telecommunications services within South Carolina must contribute to the SCUSF. The driver in the increase to the contribution factor is primarily the decline in revenues from the COLRs’ operations in South Carolina due to the decline in landlines. The contribution factor increased from 2.07 % in 2018 to 2.67% in 2022.

4 Pursuant to Section 58-9-576, SCUSF funding for Lifeline continues to apply to carriers who made the election under this section.
Disbursements from the SCUSF

Currently, 24 COLRs receive monthly disbursements from the SCUSF, and the disbursements are structured such that a COLR receives an amount authorized by the PSC in Order No. 2016-680 to the extent of available cash in the SCUSF at the end of each month. See table below.

Scope of ORS Analysis

The ORS performed a comparison of SCUSF revenues received to the sum of regulated capital expenditures and operational expenses for each of the 24 COLRs for 2018, 2019, and 2020. The ORS determined that SCUSF funds are considered spent as intended and in compliance with state law if the SCUSF revenues do not exceed the sum of regulated capital and operational expenses for a COLR.

The ORS excluded certain expenditures that may not be directly related to SCUSF intended purposes — for example, expenditures for land, buildings, support assets, finance leases, materials and supplies, intangibles, information origination/termination equipment, and depreciation were excluded. The sum of regulated capital expenditures (posted to Plant in Service) and operational expenses (as adjusted for excluded expenditures) was compared to SCUSF revenues.

Based on the information provided for each of the years reviewed — 2018, 2019, and 2020 — the ORS found that SCUSF revenues received did not exceed the sum of capital expenditures and operational expenses. In summary, the COLRs reported capital expenditures and operating expenses (as adjusted by the ORS) associated with providing voice operations in South Carolina exceeded SCUSF support. In all but one case, the ORS noted that capital expenditures and operating expenses associated with providing voice operations in South Carolina exceeded the sum of both federal and state universal service funding.

An examination of the documents provided to the ORS from the COLRs reflects that the amount of federal Universal Service Fund support increased in 2020 over 2018 and 2019.

The scope of ORS’ review did not include non-regulated services revenue such as broadband (internet) or cable services revenues.

ORS Review of SCUSF

To prepare for the examination and review, the ORS requested (ORS Request) each COLR provide and explain the Company’s policies and procedures that determine how the COLR records any and all capital investments or expenditures used in telecommunications network expansion, upgrades, improvements/replacements, and operation and maintenance of those investments in South Carolina funded by or related to the receipt of SCUSF. Each COLR provided the ORS with records of operations and regulated revenues, capital expenditures, and operating expenses.

Response of the South Carolina Telephone Coalition

The South Carolina Telephone Coalition (SCTC), an informal coalition of twenty-one (21) rural telephone companies, provided the following general response to the ORS Request.

- SCUSF funds are used to install, maintain, and operate the COLRs local exchange network, i.e., to fund capital investments and expenditures used in telecom network expansion, to make upgrades to the existing facilities, and for ongoing operations and maintenance of the network.

- SCUSF supports the entire network and the COLRs do not arbitrarily assign investments and costs that are funded through SCUSF.

- COLRs record expenses in accordance with the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners Universal System of Accounts for Telecommunications Carriers (USOA) and are subject to FCC accounting rules to ensure separation of regulated and non-regulated expenses.

- Capital expenditures can be cyclical in nature, particularly for small COLRs. A COLR may undertake a large capital project in one year (and recoup that investment over many years) and incur relatively small amounts for capital expenditures in subsequent years. In addition to capital expenditures, the COLRs provided to the ORS total plant under construction, which reflects capital expenditures.

To ensure the consistent reporting of information over time, as well as consistency of reporting by the companies, the COLRs worked with John Staurulakis, Inc. to provide the same regulated operating expense, regulated operating revenue, and capital expenditure information for the calendar-year periods ending December 31, 2018, 2019, and 2020 that was provided to the ORS in 2018 for the calendar year ending December 31, 2017. John Staurulakis certified the data provided as follows:

“I hereby certify that the Operating Expense and Operating Revenue information for the South Carolina Telephone Coalition Companies that were required to complete Toll Cost Studies for the National Exchange Carrier Association (“NECA”) for calendar year 2018, 2019, and 2020 as reflected on the confidential spreadsheet titled “SCTC Companies USF PURC Report Information Per JSI ” and attached hereto as part of this Affidavit, is the same information that was included by each such company individually in the information it filed on a certified basis with NECA for calendar years that are referenced in the spreadsheet. Data for the Average Schedule companies as well as those companies that are no longer required to complete annual costs studies with NECA comes directly from their audited financial statements, as these companies are not required to file financial data with NECA.”

Response of Other COLRs

Frontier Communications of the Carolinas LLC provided the following general responses to the ORS Request:

- Frontier records capital investments or expenditures used in telecommunications network expansion, upgrades, improvements /replacements, and operation and maintenance of network according to USOA guidelines.

- Frontier used the SCUSF funds to install and maintain the local exchange network. The costs include, among other things, wages for technicians and engineers who design, build, maintain, and repair the network; materials to maintain and repair facilities; supplies to operate, maintain, and repair vehicles used by employees for transportation to and from work sites. Costs also include the wages for call center employees who respond to customer requests for new service, changes to existing service, and repairs.

- SCUSF funds may also be used to help pay for the cost to extend Frontier’s network into new neighborhoods, replacing network equipment, and moving network facilities to accommodate state and local road construction projects.
• Because SCUSF funds are not intended for only some limited number of explicit investments and/or network operating costs, and because Frontier’s intrastate cost to provide telephone service significantly exceeds the combined revenue from both tariffed rates billed to customers and payments from the SCUSF, Frontier does not attempt to make an arbitrary assignment of investments and costs that are funded by the SCUSF.

• As reflected in Frontier’s past annual reports filed with the Commission, for at least the past five years Frontier’s intrastate Net Operating Income has been a multi-million-dollar loss. In some years, even including net income from non-regulated activities was insufficient to generate a positive total net income for Frontier, and in all cases, Frontier’s total net income would have been negative without SCUSF.

Windstream South Carolina, LLC and United Telephone Company of the Carolinas provided narratives describing the capitalization policies only. Both companies provided capital expenditure and operational expense data for use in the ORS analysis.

The ORS concluded that COLRs do not directly link expenditures for capital assets or operating expenses to support voices services to the revenues received from the SCUSF. The perspective of the COLRs can generally be summarized as the following: SCUSF is used by COLRs to support the entire network through capital investments, facility upgrades, and to support ongoing operations and maintenance requirements.

Recommendations

The COVID-19 pandemic caused an increase in demand for internet services, but demand for traditional voice services is declining as shown by the Local Competition Report completed annually in May. The funds available through the SCUSF support the capital and operating expenses necessary to support both voice and broadband services. It is important to note that as COLRs, the telecommunications companies are required to provide service upon reasonable request.

To determine whether the current funding level of the SCUSF is sufficient and at the appropriate level of distributions, the ORS recommends that an analysis of all revenues and expenses for each COLR be conducted. With this information, the ORS could make an assessment as to the sufficiency of SCUSF and the appropriate level of distributions to the COLRs.

The ORS recommends the PSC have the authority to suspend or reduce the level of SCUSF support if a COLR fails to meet its obligations to provide basic voice communication services, including 911 service.

Conclusion

In 1996, the year that the federal Telecommunications Act was enacted, rural telecommunications networks carried mostly telephone (voice) traffic. Today, modernized rural telecommunications networks carry broadband services, cable TV and video services, and traffic for other communications vendors (e.g., wireless). Therefore, facilities needed to provide modern communications services are deeply entwined with those facilities needed to provide traditional voice services. The ORS determined the revenue and cost information provided by the 24 COLRs is consistent with the past Commission orders, rules, and regulations and does not violate the provisions of Title 58, Chapter 9. In addition, when the General Assembly required the establishment of an SCUSF to ensure “universally available basic local exchange telephone service at affordable rates and to assist with the alignment of prices and/or cost recovery with costs,” it also required that the Fund be “consistent with applicable federal policies.”

Arizona expects carriers under its jurisdiction to remit intrastate universal service assessments with respect to revenues, access lines and interconnected trunks associated with non-nomadic interconnected VoIP services provided in Arizona. Because the ACC has not conducted a proceeding to ensure that it does not assess intrastate universal service assessments with respect to revenues associated with nomadic interconnected VoIP services provided in another state, the AUSF surcharges do not apply at this time. See “In the Matter of Universal Service Contribution Methodology, et al., Declaratory Ruling,” WC Docket No. 06-122 (FCC 10-185) at para. 11 (November 5, 2010).

CLEC, ILEC, VoIP

The amount of contribution required from each local exchange carrier and VoIP service provider shall be based on the total revenues of the local exchange carrier and VoIP service provider for local telecommunications service or telecommunications service derived from end users in the District of Columbia as a percentage of all the local exchange carrier’s or VoIP service provider’s total retail revenues for local telecommunications or telecommunications services derived from end users in the District of Columbia for the previous twelve (12)-month period ending December 31.

Surcharge Recovery

Federal universal service contribution costs may be recovered through interstate telecommunications-related charges to end users.

47 CFR §54.712(a)

If a contributor chooses to recover its federal universal service contribution costs through a line item on a customer's bill, the amount of the federal universal service line-item charge may not exceed the interstate telecommunications portion of that customer's bill times the relevant contribution factor.

The charge to recover these contributions is not part of any other element established pursuant to part 69. CMRS

CMRS providers may include a universal service line-item on a subscriber’s bill that does not reflect that particular subscriber’s interstate usage. The line-item, however, should accurately reflect the particular CMRS provider’s federal universal service assessment. Thus, for example, if a CMRS carrier contributes to the USF by using the Commission’s safe harbor rule, the line-item on a subscriber’s bill may not represent an amount that exceeds the contribution factor times the safe harbor percentage of the subscriber’s total telecommunications service charges. At the same time, the CMRS provider may include a line-item based on the safe harbor percentage of the subscriber's charges for all telecommunications services even if the particular subscriber did not make or receive any interstate telephone calls during the billing period.

DA 05-2320 ¶9, pg. 4

IXC, OSP

Interexchange carriers may, consistent with §§201 and 254(g), charge customers a combined charge that includes service-related and federal universal service recovery charges. Thus, for example, if a customer’s long-distance charges totaled $15 and the contribution factor was 10 percent, the interexchange carrier could direct the LEC to bill the customer one $16.50 charge. The label for the combined charge, however, must not indicate that the charge consists solely of a federal universal service charge and must not otherwise be misleading. The interexchange carrier must also inform customers of the component amounts of the combined charge upon request and retain documentation of the component amounts for three years. We also find that it would be unreasonable for a LEC, when it is performing a billing and collection function for an interexchange carrier, to refuse to implement in a timely manner any rate changes necessitated by the imposition of such combined interexchange carrier charges.

Administrative Recovery

Carriers that are not rate-regulated by this Commission, namely interexchange carriers, CMRS providers, and competitive local exchange carriers, will have the same flexibility that exists today to recover legitimate administrative and other related costs. In particular, such costs can always be recovered through these carriers’ rates or through other line items.

FCC 02-329, ¶55, pg. 29

Administrative costs of incumbent local exchange carriers (ILECs) subject to rate-of-return regulation solely related to implementation and compliance with the contribution methodology will be included in their cost accounting and therefore will be part of their end-user revenue requirement. As for carriers subject to price cap regulation, we do not anticipate that administrative costs associated with our contribution methodology will be extraordinary.

FCC 02-329, ¶55, pg. 29

Carriers may not include administrative costs in line items that are characterized as federal universal service contribution recovery charges. In particular, a carrier may not describe an amount as a regulatory fee relating to universal service when that amount exceeds the contribution factor times the interstate telecommunications revenues on the customer’s bill.

FCC 02-329, ¶54, pg. 29

CLECs do not tariff their federal universal service line items with the Commission.

FCC 02-329, ¶60, pg. 31

ILECs must include in their tariffs information regarding the recovery of contributions to the Universal Service Support Mechanisms.

47 CFR §69.4(d)

Any entity required to contribute to the federal universal service support mechanisms shall retain, for at least 5 years from the date of the contribution, all records that may be required to demonstrate to auditors that the contributions made were in compliance with the Commission’s universal service rules. These records shall include without limitation the following: Financial statements and supporting documentation; accounting records; historical customer records; general ledgers; and any other relevant documentation. This document retention requirement also applies to any contractor or consultant working on behalf of the contributor.

47 CFR §54.706(e)

All telecommunications companies holding a certificate of authority issued by the commission to provide services within Georgia shall contribute quarterly to the fund as provided in this subsection. The commission shall determine the manner of contribution using either one or a combination of the following two contribution methodologies: (1) A charge for each working telephone number; or (2) A proportionate amount based on each company’s gross intrastate revenues from the provision of telecommunications services to end users.

Ga. Code Ann. §46-5-167(b)

In calculating such contributions, the commission shall allow a local exchange company holding a certificate of authority issued by the commission after July 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2010, with primary headquarters in Georgia and more than 750 full-time employees working in Georgia as of January 1, 2010, to utilize accumulated unexpired Georgia net operating losses for taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2010, on a full dollar-for-dollar basis to reduce up to 50 percent of its contribution to the Universal Access Fund. Within the same tax year of the election, companies making such election shall formally notify the Department of Revenue that the company agrees to forego any rights or claims to the Georgia net operating losses so used.

Ga. Code Ann. §46-5-167(b)(2)

Docket No. 36116, Order dated 11/29/12

The commission may allow any telecommunications company certified as a competitive local exchange carrier to request a hearing seeking relief from this contribution requirement upon application, demonstration, and good cause shown that such competitive local exchange carrier does not receive a benefit from the reduction in intrastate switched access charges pursuant to subsection (c) of §46-5-166.

The MTS/WATS company is authorized to impose beginning October 1 following issuance of the order an MTS/WATS surcharge on a uniform percentage basis in the manner set forth in the order issued pursuant to Rule 104.04.b. Each contributing TSP is free to decide whether to explicitly recover the contribution through an end-user surcharge appearing on the monthly bill or to build the amount into the cost of the carrier’s service offerings.

VoIP
All VoIP providers, or any other carriers utilizing IP technologies, that meet the FCC definition of “interconnected VoIP services” as found in 47 CFR § 9.3 should contribute to the SUSF.

VoIP Methodology
The intrastate traffic of interconnected VoIP carriers should be identified based upon the FCC’s safe harbor rule. If an interconnected VoIP provider can identify and record the jurisdictional nature of its own traffic, then the provider will be permitted to submit its own actual data in order to overcome the presumption of intrastate traffic found in the FCC’s safe harbor rule and the SUSF assessments shall be based on the carriers’ actual intrastate traffic.

ICLEC, IXC, OSP, ILEC, VoIP

The Missouri Universal Service Fund (USF) assessment is applied to the net jurisdictional revenue of all registered Interconnected Voice over Internet Protocol (IVoIP) providers and certificated telecommunications companies except: pay telephone providers, shared tenant services (STS) providers, and those companies with annual net jurisdictional revenue below a de minimis level as identified on the Missouri USF website.

Remittances may be submitted to the Missouri USF administrator using either of the following two (2) methods: (A) A carrier may remit an amount based solely on applying the percentage assessment to the carrier's Missouri net jurisdictional revenue. If this method is used, no refunds will be given if a carrier subsequently finds it remitted more than collected; or (B) A carrier may remit all funds received as a result of the application of a surcharge through a line item on a retail end-user customers' bill. This method satisfies the carrier's annual percentage assessment if-- 1. The surcharge equals the percentage assessment ordered by the commission; 2. The surcharge is identified as "Missouri Universal Service Fund"; and 3. The surcharge percentage is applied to each customer's total charges associated with the carrier's net jurisdictional revenues.

Charges by local or long distance telecommunications carriers to PSPs for toll or access line charges are not retail "end user" telecommunications revenues, and do not serve as a basis for that local or long distance telecommunications carrier's contribution to the USF. As such, local and long distance telecommunications carriers are prohibited from passing any USF charges on to their PSP customers.

Exchange access facility means the access from a particular telephone subscriber’s premises to the telephone system of a service supplier. VoIP
The South Carolina Public Service Commission (PSC) requires interconnected VoIP providers to contribute to the state Universal Service Fund on a prospective basis. The PSC ruled that all interconnected VoIP service providers, regardless of whether they hold a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity issued by the Commission, must contribute to the USF based on their retail voice communications services.

Billing Requirements
OSP, CLEC, IXC, PSP, CMRS, ILEC, VoIP
Contributions to the USF (for all USF Contributors except prepaid wireless sellers) may be recovered through an explicit surcharge on retail customers' bills. S.C. Code Ann. §58-9-2510(15)

A person or entity defined as a "Prepaid wireless seller" must collect the USF contribution from a "Prepaid wireless consumer" with respect to each [Prepaid wireless] retail transaction occurring in this State.

All Prepaid wireless retail transaction charges for prepaid wireless calling arrangements must be sourced to the: (i) location in this State where the over-the-counter sale took place; (ii) shipping address if the sale did not take place at the seller's location and an item is shipped; or (iii) either the billing address or location associated with the mobile telephone number if the sale did not take place at the seller's location and no item is shipped.

USF contributions for Prepaid wireless telecommunications service must be collected from Prepaid wireless consumers, by persons or entities defined as Prepaid wireless sellers. The amount of the charge to be collected with respect to each retail transaction must be a fixed per transaction fee established annually by the Office of Regulatory Staff.

Billing Requirements

The amount of the charge either must be separately stated on an invoice, receipt, or other similar document that is provided to the [Prepaid wireless] consumer by the person or entity defined as a "Prepaid wireless seller"; or otherwise disclosed to the [Prepaid wireless] consumer.

At the election of the person or entity [Prepaid wireless seller], the dual party relay charge, the USF contribution charge, and the 911 charge may be combined into a single charge for purposes of being stated on the invoice, receipt, or other similar document or otherwise disclosed to the [Prepaid wireless] consumer. This amount may not be considered revenue of the person or entity [Prepaid wireless seller].

PPW

The department [Department of Revenue] shall establish procedures by which a prepaid wireless seller may document that a sale is not a prepaid wireless retail transaction, which procedures shall substantially coincide with the procedures for documenting sale for resale transactions pursuant to Section 12-36-950 [Sales Tax].

(vi) Charges incurred by utilizing prepaid telephone calling cards or prepaid authorization numbers.

PPW

Prepaid wireless telecommunications service means a telecommunications service as defined in subdivision 203(5) of this title that a consumer pays for in advance and that is sold in predetermined units or dollars that decline with use. [30 VSA §203(5)] A person or company offering telecommunications service to the public on a common carrier basis. "Telecommunications service" means the transmission of any interactive two-way electromagnetic communications, including voice, image, data and information. Transmission of electromagnetic communications includes the use of any media such as wires, cables, television cables, microwaves, radio waves, light waves or any combination of those or similar media. Telecommunications service does not include value added nonvoice services in which computer processing applications are used to act on the form, content, code and protocol of the information to be transmitted unless those services are provided under tariff approved by the public service board;

PPW Methodology

Providers may employ any reasonable methodology to determine the amount to be remitted to the VUSF with respect to wholesale transactions and instances where the provider does not collect the charge from the consumer.

A. Telecommunications service providers may show the USF charge on a single line on the customer’s bill. On a monthly bill, the USF Charge should be described in one of the following ways: “Vermont Universal Service Charge,” “Vermont Universal Service Fund,” "Vermont USF Charge," or the "Vt. USF Charge." B. In some cases, because of billed services being exempt from the USF charge, the total USF Charge due may not simply be the product of the gross bill and the USF Charge rate. In such cases the company should be prepared to explain to the customer the basis for calculation of the USF charge. C. An explanation of how the USF charge is calculated shall be given to customers at least once per year.

However, under Docket No. UT-971140, the Commission adopted a fund as part of its Washington Exchange Carrier Association (WECA) pooling process. The access plan that was adopted by WECA, and approved by the Commission includes a universal service fund rate element that a CLEC assessing access charges to an IXC must charge and collect. Effective 08/01/14, ILECs and CLECs were directed to eliminate this rate element from their tariffs. All LECs must continue to collect and remit the revenues from the rate element to WECA for intrastate traffic billed through July 31, 2014.
